Xmas Trivia

- According to the National Christmas Tree Association, Americans buy 37.1 million real Christmas trees each year; 25 percent of them are from the nation's 5,000 choose-and-cut farms.
- Alabama was the first state to recognize Christmas as an official holiday. This tradition began in 1836.
- Before settling on the name of Tiny Tim for his character in "A Christmas Carol," three other alliterative names were considered by Charles Dickens. They were Little Larry, Puny Pete, and Small Sam.
- Christmas trees are edible. Many parts of pines, spruces, and firs can be eaten. The

My Favorite Part of the Holidays!

Every year I look forward to that first holiday song that I hear on the radio. It instantly gets me into the holiday mood and puts a smile on my face. This is why, every year in our party store, we turn up our Quebbie - DJ in a Box music system and set it to "Holiday Cheer" and "Holiday Classics!" This year, complete your Holiday Party with the perfect music! You can rent the DJ in a Box system alone and hook it up to your own sound system or rent the complete package with speakers, speaker stands and microphone! A holiday party needles are a good source of vitamin C. Pine nuts, or pine cones, are also a good source of nutrition.

Don't Bake? Don't Worry!!!

This deliciously adorable recipe is for those non-bakers out there!

Birds Nests

Makes about 6 servings

4 cups chow mein noodles

3 cups miniature marshmallows

3 tablespoons butter or margarine

Small jelly beans

1. Line a cookie sheet with foil and grease with spray-on cooking oil.
2. Pour noodles into a large bowl.
3. Melt the butter and marshmallows over medium heat, stirring until smooth.
4. Pour marshmallow mixture over noodles, stirring until well coated.
5. Rub some butter on hands and form noodle mixture into six round balls.
6. Place balls on prepared cookie sheet. With the back of a teaspoon, press the center of each ball to make a hollow indentation. Let nests set until they are firm. Fill each with small jelly beans. (Other small candies of your choice may be substituted, such as M & M's, small gumdrops, chocolate covered raisins, chocolate covered peanuts, etc.)
7. ENJOY!!!!

isn't a party without cheerful holiday music so jingle all the way to the phone and call us to rent Quebbie today!!!!

Holiday Costumes!!!!!!

Now is the time to play dress up!!

Nothing brings a smile to someone's face like a visit from Santa, Mrs. Claus or one of their elves! Feel like being a "mean one"? How about dressing as the Grinch this year? Our costumes are professional grade, are available in different sizes and are sure to bring magic and laughter to your holiday get together.

WISHING YOU THE JOY OF FAMILY,
THE HAPPINESS OF FRIENDS, AND THE LOVE OF THE HOLIDAY SEASON

Sincerely,

Darren Morizet
