THANKSGIVING

*The year has turned its circle,
The seasons come and go.
The harvest all is gathered in
And chilly north winds blow.*

*Orchards have shared their treasures,
The fields, their yellow grain,
So open wide the doorway*

Thanksgiving comes again!

*It sprouted roots and a big, long vine.
 A pumpkin grew; I called it mine.
 The pumpkin was quite round and fat.
 (I really am quite proud of that.)
 But there is something I'll admit
 That has me worried just a bit.
 I ate the other seed, you see.
 Now will it grow inside of me?*

*(I'm so relieved since I have found
 That pumpkins only grow in the ground!)*
